The records of the past show that our Conference has given least support to the most worthy cause and that in a large measure the "Retired Man has been The Forgotten Man". In face of these facts we offer the following:

1. The full amount apportioned for Conference Claimants be raised from every charge.

2. That we put on an active campaign in every church of The North Carolina Conference to raise an endowment for the Conference Claimants.

3. That we raise at least $500 in cash, this to be added to the permanent endowment fund already in hand and that a compaign for permanent endowment shall be continued until a worthy sum for this cause has been raised.

4. That at an early date this committee be called to meet jointly with the Conference Claimants Committee for permanent funds, at which time officers shall be elected plans worked out for a thorough canvass of the members and friends for subscription to this fund.

5. That in offering the above, we are ever mindful that it is an effort to give protection and comfort to those whose efforts and lives have made possible the accomplishments and victories of the present.

COMPOSIT REPORTS OF THE District Superintendents, North Carolina Conference Made at the Seventy-Sixth Annual Session At Lenoir, North Carolina October 24-28, 1934.

The District Superintendents are grateful to Almighty God for this privilege of reporting the work of the Districts of the North Carolina Conference to this Seventy-Sixth session.

We are also happy for the hearty and unselfish cooperation we have enjoyed from our brothers, the pastors of the churches, with whom we have untiringly worked, and with whom we gladly share what victories we have had this conference year.

We are grateful to have the privilege to serve under the kind and brotherly leadership of Bishop Wallace E. Brown. His leadership is of the type that inspires confidence. He makes one believe in his ability to do, and he sends one forth determined to carry on against all odds. His approach to a task is with confidence in his co-workers, and an unswerving fidelity in the sacredness of the objectives sought.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' RETREAT

We were called to a District Superintendents' Retreat meeting of the entire Chattanooga Area last December in Chattannooga. The meeting was both informational and inspirational. We left the Chattanooga meeting convinced of two things, namely; that God's business is all important, and requires all of the best time and preparation the minister has to give to it; and second, that God's work can only be done as we work together with Him.

DISTRICT MEETINGS OF CULTIVATION AND PROMOTION

Our District After-Easter meetings were arranged in such succession that Bishop Brown, with Mrs. Brown and a team of Workers, were able to be present in each of them. The presence of the team was just exactly what our captain indicates. It was cultivational and promotional. The work of the year as reported by the several pastors will indicate some of the benefits received from the team of workers who share their larger experience with us, and. as brothers beloved, urged us to "go forward."

WORLD SERVICE

The missionary work of the Church is carried on under the title, "WORLD SERVICE." With us World Service means just what its name suggests—serving the people of the world thru the various agencies of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Our reports on every district will show an increase. This, we consider a worthy result from forceful leadership. And in this, the District Superintendents admit a share in the type of leadership which we have tried to follow under our "Chief." Even tho our reports will show an increase of 30 or 40 percent over last year, in the words of the Apostle Paul we are still saying today: "We count not ourselves to have apprehended; but this one thing we do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, we press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

The District Superintendents recommend that obedient to the call of the great Church we approve a special world service offering to be designated to the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. And in that we have such needy building and debt projects already involving us here in North Carolina we humbly request that moneys raised from this special world service offering be allotted for use here on the several districts of the North Carolina Conference.

EDUCATION

Among the many educational institutions in North Carolina, two of them—Bennett College and Allen School, are especially dear to our hearts.

We recognize in Bennett College one among the best colleges operated for Negro girls in America. Its able president shows by continued marks of progress that he "came to the kingdom for such a time as this." The school needed and still needs the leadership and the connections President Jones is able to bring to it these days. The North Carolina Conference is squarely behind Bennett and President Jones. Our loyalty and support is not to be measured exclusively by our contributions in money and money values. We are doing some things along that line. More can and will be done. The dedication of two new buildings, the gift of Mr. and Mrs.

Henry Peiffer, soon to be celebrated at the college, is a source of deep appreciation. But more than that, it places us under a larger obligation to do more, and to make larger sacrifices in the support of our own school.

We saw large possibilities in the initial food rally conducted on the Greensboro and Winston Districts last fall. We recommend that this proceedure shall become Conference-wide. We recommend that our assessment to Bennett shall be made large enough to include such food stuffs as our people may be willing to share with the college, the same to receive wholesale market value and be credited to the churches sharing on Annual Conference investments.

Allen School at Asheville is well known for the training in home making and aesthetic culture it has brought to our race group. Founded by one of the saints in those early days after slavery, and maintained thru the years by the W.H.M.S., and directed by some of the purest hearts of our Methodism, Allen School has a unique place in modern education, and is deserving our support.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT

Ministerial support is directly effected by economic conditions. We feel that not as much have been done as ought have been done. We know not as much has been done as the people themselves have desired. We adhere to the disciplinary requirement in the collections and distribution of ministerial support. We have suggested that the four items,—namely—episcopal fund, conference claimants, district superintendents, and pastor be faithfully and prayerfully pro rated. Our reports show that not only have the suggestions been made by the District Superintendents, but with few exceptions, the actual distribution has been faithfully observed.

WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

Ladies Aids and Woman's Home Missionary Societies add much to relieving the social and financial obligations that are so necessary to the life of the church. The Church needs these departments, and as soon as we learn to use them to the good of all, the better. These societies have helped the church beyond calculation when the call has been made, and many a critical situation has been relieved by the timely help of these auxiliaries. We recommend a more timely diffusion of their possibilities, and we urge that greater recognition be given to what these are doing and what can be done, when the women of our churcher are properly and adequately organized. We firmly hope that this work among the women may become so contagious that the men of our churches may catch it. And we are hoping that in no mild form, either. We wish that there might be a great epidemic of it to the end that there might not be a charge or church where both men and women should not exhibit serious symptoms, and "break out" with it to the end that inertness and indifference might be cured, and the work made to prosper increasingly.

SESQUI-CENTENNIAL

Anniversaries are occasions for reflections and resolution. They provide new starting points and inspire new confidence. The celebration of the One Hundredth and Fiftieth anniversary of the organization of Methodism in America is no exception to the rule. Our reflections make the contrast between the Christmas Conference of 1784 and the Sesqui-Centennial stand out in bold relief. There were sixty-three preachers assembled in that conference—There are tens of thousands of Methodist preachers today. Methodism, then in its unorganized state, was a negligible influence in the life of the colonies; today it includes one-fourth of the protestant population of America.

In this connection as we think of the Negro, we are forced to ask: "What hath God Wrought?" In the development of America Methodism, the Negro has played a commendable part. He has been a beneficiary, but he has also been a worth-while contributor. The apostolic labors of "Black Harry", the eloquent travelling companion of Bishop Asbury, loom as of worthy mention in this connection. John Stewart, the apostle to the Indians, and he who gave inspiration for the organization of Home Mission work in the Church must also be mentioned with pardonable pride.

We look back to the heroism of the pioneers of the past with sincere appreciation. We look forward to the work of the future, and inspired by those early heroes, "who counted their lives not dear," and led by our Master "who has called us to be soldiers," we rededicate ourselves.

In this statement, we are committing ourselves to our co-laborers, without whose cooperation nothing can be done. We are also committing ourselves—ministers of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church—to the leadership, "Whose we are, and Whom we serve."

REPORT ON STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

To your committtee on the state of the country has been signed a task that requires very serious thinking and envolves much responsibility. It seems fitting such a body of men and women as make up the personel of this Conference representing as it does the leadership of this vast area stretching from the mountains to the seas. That at some time during our sojourn together we should give attention to the state of the country. With this interview your committee will endeavor to bring to your minds a brief summary of things as we observe them.

It is clear to all who think today that we are living in perilous times. The problems are so many and so vexing that they tax our powers and try our faith. The economic and industrial conditions today are staggering to the imagination of statesmen and churchmen. There is such an unrest and unsettled condition in the business world, that the great industrial magnets are puzzled to how to proceed. Many of the great industrial plants are disorganizing and going out of business; leaving the workers out of employment, and without support. To drift like a ship without a guide. There are ten million of our fellow-citizens out of employment.

Many of whom are out of food and shelter, and are living from the scanty tables of charity. This condition has, and it is effecting every phase of life in a very destructive way. The tendency is downward as seen by some thinkers, as to what the future will be is puzzling to the most sanguine.

The morals have been lowered to such an extent that all manners of evil is creeping into society. The sanctity of the home is being destroyed, the moral standard lowered, the social order is defective, selfishness and greed are striking at the very vitals of our civilization. Race hatred is still lurking in the hearts of men and women. A mighty crime wave is sweeping the land. And everywhere are tendencies to utter disregard for law and order. There is a tide of so-called popular ideals possessing the minds of the young folks, bringing into it an order of loose family bonds; there is a wide spread disregard for law, civics or devine. An unrestrained gratification of individual desires, greedy appetite for salicious fiction and moving pictures. That is drawing many identived with the church from their safe mooring and carrying many into the paths of sin. Those of us who are familiar with conditions recognize the fact that we are facing a crisis. The cause is not for us to seek. We have drifted into materialism and lost sight of the fundamentals of life.

Your committee calls attention to the necessity for a speedy return to the deserted principles, and more diligent and regular use of the means of Grace. We also recognize these conditions as the natural fruitage arising from the neglect of God, and fellowship with him. We urge that pastors and laymen call for a more persistent personnal evangelism and the exaltation of the church as the one agency exalting the Christ as supreme of man-kind. We must develope a strong and courageous leadership ministerial and lay. We must not become pessimistic and think that the world is coming to an end. Let us press on. The challenge comes to us. It is world wide. The hungry millions are looking to the church for help. Let's meet it like heroes and heroines. The task is a glorious one, but not easy. If we press forward and keep on doing our bit, the clouds will roll away. There is a silver lining. We build the fabric of a new world by strengthening each unit or district. To this task let us dedicate our powers anew, we set the pace for the world. This is no time to draw back, but rather yearn for unreached heights, and unattained goals. There is a better day ahead. The Lord is not slack concerning his promises.

THEN PRAY WE—

"Enlarge our minds to grasp Thy thoughts,
Enlarge our hearts to work Thy plan,
Assure Thy purpose faileth not
To put Thy spirit into man!
God of the present age and hour
Thrill us anew with holy power!

G. M. PHELPS,
H. L. ASHE.

MEMOIRS.

"Yea. In Thy life our little lives are ended,
Into Thy depths our trembling spirits fall;
In Thee enfolded, gathered, comprehended,
As holds the sea her waves—Thou holds'st us all."

J. D. HAIRSTON

J. D. Hairston was born in Davie County, N. C. June 15, 1882, and passed to his eternal reward Oct. 23, 1933 at Goldsboro.

He was married to Miss Frances Mitchell, March 26, 1886. He rendered faithful service in churches to which he was appointed during his effective ministry. He was amiable, serene and meek. His creed was "Holiness unto the Lord."

"Tis a glorious thought we'll meet again.
When life, with all cares is o'er
Each other's bliss we then shall share,
For we shall part no more."

J. W. WELLS

J. W. Wells was born in Sherrill's Ford N. C., August 22, 1872. Feeling early in life the divine urge to enter the ministry, he fitted himself for his life work in Bennett College and Gammon Theological Seminary.

He entered a rich and challenging heritage. His father, Isaac Wells, was the first member of the North Carolina Conference. He shared this goodly succession with two brothers, forming a unique trio of preachers. His labor in various appointments was crowned with success.

J. W. Wells was a man of marked individuality, deep conviction, and an unusual gift to preach with power and persuasiveness. He was married to Miss Ada Gross, April 11, 1900. This union was blessed with six children. His home life was happy and peaceful. His life companion was an embodiment of Proverb 31:11, "The heart of her husband trusteth in her." His earthly pilgrimage closed Jan. 18, 1934. The funeral service, held in St. Matthew, Greensboro, attended by a great host.

"Death is the chilliness that precedes the dawn;
We shudder for a moment, then awake
In the broad sunshine of another life."

HISTORICAL VIEW

From the organization of Methodism in America, the work in North Carolina was continued in Virginia and afterwards in the Virginia and South Carolina Conferences. In the year 1836, the General Conference set up in North Carolina. Its first session opened as a part of the Virginia Conference, but when it adjourned there were two Conferences.

Facts from the first ninety sessions are gleaned from the General Minutes from the Conference Journal for those years, which is now in cutsody of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

At the Conference of December 4, 1844, there were 19,495 white members and 3,190 colored. Without consulting the wisdom of the latter, nearly the whole membership became part of a new church, organized in May, 1845, and called the Methodsit Episcopal Church, South. Some of the colored members entereed the A. M. E. Church, some of the Colored M. E. Church of America, but thousands turned gladly to the bosom of the old Methodist Episcopal Church as it returned to the State after the Civil War.

Between the years 1844, when the Church was separated over the slave question, and in 1865, when at the close of the War the M. E. Church returned to shepherd its scattering flock in North Carolina, there was no session of the North Carolina Conference.

From the North Carolina Conference the Blue Ridge was formed with twelve preachers, 2,839 members and probationers, and 41 church edifices.
